senting a complete picture of the implements and horse drawn equipment used in farm and country living 100-200 years ago. As such it is unique in this part of the state. The interior of the building is a fascinating reproduction of a 200 year-old barn, with huge timbers, broad galleries (haymows), long slanting roof, and old fashioned windows giving it the rough-hewn look of many years ago.

Visitors will find exhibits on the lower floor presenting outdoor life and work--the farm wagons, carriages, sleighs; the various types of plows, harrow, and cultivators; the heavy ice-cutting equipment used in cutting ice on the ponds and storing it in icehouses. A typical barn corner has been arranged to show all kinds of reaping, haying, and harvesting tools, things that the present generation has never seen. And, of course, on the ground floor are the three valuable relics of Mattapoisett's history--the Town's 1821 fire engine, the 1900 watering wagon, and the horse-drawn sidewalk snowplow.

In the galleries visitors will see exhibits of both indoor and outdoor living: Civil War bicycles, a harness shop, a carpenter's shop with a remarkably fine collection of old tools, a weaving room, a cobbler's shop, colonial fireplace cooking utensils, and articles of all sorts once used in daily life.

A special feature on the second floor is a large working model of a salt works. The manufacture of salt from sea water was once one of the major industries of both Mattapoisett and Marion, with saltworks covering acres and acres of land along the sea fronts of both villages. The museum's model is one of the very few in existence.

"Carriage House Week" marks the opening of the Mattapoisett Historical Society's second museum. It is a special occasion for the town and the entire area. Members of the Rochester Historical Society are planning a special evening's visit. Members of the Sippican Historical Society have received an invitation. Everyone in Mattapoisett, Rochester, and Marion is cordially invited to see the new Carriage House Museum.

SELECTMEN EXPRESS OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL 5581

Mattapoisett Selectmen have sent a letter to both Representative Charles MacKenzie and Senator Allan Jones expressing strong objections to House Bill 5581 which overrides Town Zoning by requiring low cost public apartment housing whether the individual town and city zoning laws permit this or not. Selectmen asked that the lawmakers oppose the bill. Allan Jones was not recorded as voting on the Bill.

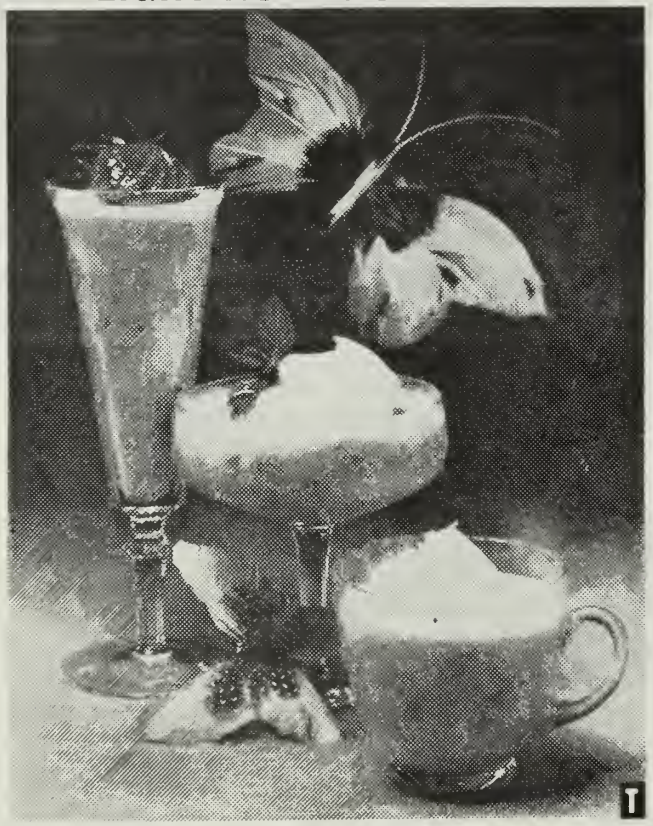
LIGHT AS A BUTTERFLY



When you're on a diet, a sweet ending for dinner can do much to boost your morale. Just aim to make it a light one, like this Fruit Dream that's based on D-Zerta Low Calorie Gelatin Dessert. Garnishes like a bit more fruit, a spoonful of prepared low calorie whipped topping, or a small sprinkle of coconut add a few more calories but give it a "party" look.

FRUIT DREAM

- 1 envelope (4-serving size) low calorie orange flavor gelatin
- Dash of salt
- 1½ cups boiling water
- ½ cup milk
- ½ teaspoon grated orange rind
- ¼ cup drained low calorie fruit cocktail
- ¼ cup diced orange sections

Dissolve gelatin and salt in boiling water. Cool. Stir in milk and orange rind. Chill until thickened; fold in fruits. Pour into dessert dishes or individual molds. Chill until firm. Serve from glasses or unmold. Garnish, if desired. Makes 2¼ cups or 4 servings—about 40 calories each, served plain.

50-YARD WINNER

Jody Mort, winner of the 50-yard race for girls, accepts trophy from Selectman John Field. Albert Boucher, life guard, is announcing the winners in background.

Letter to the Editor

That peculiar American disease, littering, has really struck hard at Shipyard Park this summer. Look for yourself some morning before the abutters to the Park have cleaned up the refuse left from the evening before. Several shopping bags of debris are taken from the Park each morning by residents who can't live with "the mess", and take it upon themselves to pick up the litter, and to destroy the ants that are attracted by the spilled soda and discarded wrappings.

Shipyard Park has been one of the most beautiful spots in this area. Can't we keep it from becoming a "suburban dump" like Ned's Point and so many other recreational areas in this region?

Mattapoisett resident

The Brave New World ?

PARKS DEPLORABLE - Editorial

Conditions at Shipyard Park, at the Library and Ned's Point are exactly as described by the letter above. The streets of the town would be knee deep in rubbish tossed away by the slovenly if individual homeowners did not pick up daily around their property. The public parks are cleaned every day by young men who do a good job. Their work is erased almost instantly by those who don't care and those who go out of their way to deface the parks. Last week, immediately after the daily cleaning, a barrel of cans, bottles and papers was upended into one of the bowls of the public toilets. This kind of deliberate and constant vandalism cannot be coped with by any public clean-up crew and those human pigs who resort to this kind of "amusement" will not respond to any decent request. The conditions continue to grow worse daily. What is the answer?

SELECTMEN'S OFFICE

Now nearing completion, the Mattapoisett's Selectmen's office at the Town Hall shows a complete new face. The light, handsome paneling and new low ceiling add up to a modern office decor. Mrs. Mary Sullivan, clerk, assists an applicant for a license in the photo above.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her sister, Miss Laurel Akerman, as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Judith Akerman, another sister, Mrs. William Celander, Ossining, cousin of the bride; and Miss Martha Hopkins, Rome, sister of the bridegroom.

Best man for his brother was Brian Hopkins. Guests were seated by Oliver Dauberman, Urichsville, Ohio; Robert Gump, Columbus, Ohio; and James Akerman, brother of the bride.

Carrying a bouquet of alba lilies, the bride wore a sheer Empire dress with a train which fell from the shoulder of the gown. The dress and long veil were trimmed with daisies.

After a reception at Plentywood Farm, Bensenville, Illinois, the couple left on a wedding trip to Baraboo, Wisconsin and Chicago.

The bride is a 1969 graduate of Muskingum College, New Concord, Ohio. She is a teacher at Hillside School, Illinois. Her husband, also a graduate of the college, is serving with the Navy.

Waterside Baptism

BY

REV. CRAIG BIDDLE III OF ST. PHILIP'S

The infant baptism of James Smallwood Waterston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Waterston, performed on the shore of Mattapoisett Harbor last Sunday by the Rev. Craig Biddle II of St. Philip's Church (Episcopal) may be reckoned the first of its kind. This, in spite of the fact that the exact words of the formal service for baptism to be found in the Book of Common Prayer were those spoken. The strings of two guitars were plucked by Mr. Biddle and Mr. Samuel Atkinson Waterston, father of the baby, and the notes combined with the singing of the members of St. Philip's congregation who had followed the Rector to the beach below Shipyard Lane after the 10 o'clock service of worship. A devout informality, thoroughly modern, was thus combined with ancient and beloved ritual of Christian baptism.

Familiar to worshippers in the Episcopal faith is the carrying of the newly named baby down the church aisle and back, but in this case the youngest member of the church was conveyed by the Rector out into the bay waters for the baptismal event itself, while parents, and Godparents watched, holding prayerful thoughts as the outward and returning steps were in progress. Clouds which had threatened parted long enough for the sun's rays to add what seemed a special radiance to the scene.

The newly baptized James Smallwood Waterston is the great grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Atkinson. Mr. Atkinson was senior warden and vestryman, as well as organist, of St. Philip's Church, Mattapoisett in its early days. Mr. and Mrs. Chicherly Waterston of North Andover and Mattapoisett are the baby's grandparents. Also grandparents are Robert Powell Johns and Barbara Green-Johns. Baby James' parents are Samuel Atkinson Waterston and Barbara Rutledge (Johns) Waterston of New York and Mattapoisett. Present at the ceremony was George C. Waterston of Atkinson Way, Mattapoisett. Godparents of the baby are Richard Smallwood Johns of Westport, Christina Louise Vendenvoorn, and Dinah Maxwell Smith, both of New York. Some thirty persons participated in the service of baptism and sang familiar hymns. Altar flowers at the church service earlier were in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Atkinson, placed there by Mr. and Mrs. Chicherly Waterston of Mattapoisett and North Andover.

AUGUST JUNIOR SERIES, AUGUST 13

The second and third races of the August Junior series were scheduled for Wednesday, August 13th, at the Mattapoisett Yacht Club, with competition in two classes.

George Fisher in Cloud Nine and Billy Mee in Irish Eyes shared the Corinthian victory, and John Ross in Happy Too won both races for the Beetle Cats.

The two Corinthian races followed the same course, starting at the race committee boat anchored in mid-harbor opposite Ned's Point, to Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy, to Ned's Point MYC guide buoy, to Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy and back to the race committee boat.

In the first race, George Fisher in Cloud Nine came in first, followed by Billy Mee in Irish Eyes and Cornelia Burr in Good Grief.

Reversing the two top positions in the second race, Billy Mee's Irish Eyes was the winner, with George Fisher's Cloud Nine, second, Paula Ruel's Lulu third.

The two Beetle Cat races sailed from the race committee boat to Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy and back, twice around.

In the first race, John Ross' Happy Too led the fleet, with M. Boucher's Hep Cat II second, and David Donald's Duke third.

Again in the second race the Beetle Cats listed John Ross in Happy Too as the winning skipper. David Donald's Duke was second and Phil McCarthy's Wolf third.

AUGUST SENIOR SERIES, AUGUST 16

Last week ended at the Mattapoisett Yacht Club with the August Senior Series Race on Saturday, August 16th, with two contests in each class.

Demo, with Art McLean at the helm, won both races for the Corinthians. The outcome of the first Beetle Cat race is still in doubt, awaiting a decision by the Race Committee. Harvey Pentleton in Swamp Fox was the victor in the second race.

Although the weather was excellent, with brisk southwest winds, the competition was clouded by various protests.

The course for the two Corinthian races started at the race committee boat, anchored in mid-harbor, then to Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy, to the Crescent Beach MYC guide buoy, to Gallatin Rock Black Can 3, and finished at the race committee boat.

Art McLean's Demo led the fleet around the course, with Chuck Ruel's Challenge second and Billy Mee's Irish Eyes third.

Tom Clark in Instead is protesting both Ralph Eustis in Lisa and the race committee.

In the second Corinthian race, Art McLean again took the win, with Steve Ruel's Lulu finishing second. Tom Clark's Instead placed third.

The Beetle Cats, in their first race, sailed from the race committee boat anchored at mid-harbor opposite Ned's Point, to Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy, to Barstow Rock Red Nun 6, and to the finish at the race committee boat.

Harvey Pentleton, in Swamp Fox, was first over the starting line, but Jimmy Barnes in Gay-Lee-Ann II and Sue McGowan in Hep Cat II overtook him at the first marker.

The last leg of the race saw the development of two close contests. Barnes was the winner by one second over Sue McGowan, and Pentleton edged ahead of David Donald's Duke by the same one second margin for third place.

However, Barnes and McGowan have both registered protests against each other, so the eventual slate of winners is still in doubt.

The course for the second Beetle Cat race went from the race committee boat, to Sunken Ledge Black Can 5, to Barstow Rock Red Nun 6, and to finish at race committee boat.

This was an especially close, hard-fought contest with the first five boats crossing the finish line within seconds of each other.

Barnes and McGowan were the leaders at the start, but halfway through the first leg

Barnes and McGowan have again registered protests against each other, so the second and third place winners are yet to be posted, awaiting the decision of the race committee.

Nancy Young is also protesting David Donald, following a collision at the start.
